EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on Sept. 18, 2006 has been entered.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Scott N. Barker, 42,292, 859-232-3668 on Dec. 6, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claims 45 and 47:

"a heater is" in paragraph (f) changes to: "a plurality of heaters are".

Claims 64 and 67:

The sentence of "the satellite droplets are vertically offset" in the last "wherein" paragraph changes to "the satellite droplets are offset on a vertical axis".

Claim 68:

"The method of claim 6" changes to "the method of claim 67".

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regard to:

Claims 45, 47, 50 and 51-63:

Please refer to the prosecution records before.

Claims 64-69:

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 64-69 is the inclusion of the limitation of wherein the ink jet print head travels laterally while printing, and when placed on the print media, the satellite droplets are offset on a vertical axis from the main drops on the print media. It is this limitation found in each of the claims as they are claimed in the combination, which has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record that makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
